WILL NOT ATTEMPT TO LOWER RECORD

New York, June 14—Norman Taber, holder of the world's one-mile record of 4 minutes 12 3-5 seconds, declares he does ot propose to go into training with the intention of trying to smash the quarter and half-mile records made by Ted Mere-

When he returned from Oxford a year When he returned from Oxford a year ago Taber went into a banking house in Providence and after his running last summer put away his spikes for good.
"My interest in track work in the future," says Taber, "will be confined entirely to the track team at Brown University. My spare time will be utilized in assisting Archie Hahn, Brown coach, in developing a team which we hope within a year or so will place track athletics at that college on a firmer basis letics at that college on a firmer basis than ever before."
